HOLIDAY ART BOUTIQUE 2026

Information, Rules and Regulations

1. Artist must be a member of Columbia Arts Guild (AKA: CAG). You may join any time.

2. There is no fee to participate, 20% of sales will be deducted to support CAG up to a cap of $25 per table. Community grid walls pay 20% up to $25.

3. All Inventory must be tagged with the price and the inventory number for each piece.

(Artists first and last initial + last four digits of phone number. Ex: CR 0875).

4. If art is to hang on the CAG grids, proper wire hangers are required. No sawtooth hangers.

5. Inventory must be brought to the Columbia City Community Hall, 1850 2nd St, Columbia City, OR. Arrive between 8 and 8:30 am day of sale. Check in with volunteer.

6. If you are hanging art in the common area, an inventory sheet must be given to cashier. Sheets available at check in.

7. Unsold inventory must be picked up at close of the sale, 4:00 pm. Be there, we won't call you.

8. Cards, prints, and ornaments will be accepted at this sale. Each item must be tagged with Vendor/Inventory number and price. (see item 3)

9. Allow 1-2 weeks for checks to be mailed following the Holiday Art Boutique.

NOTE: We will have a central checkout.

At your table, the customer should be supplied with an invoice listing all items to be purchased. Invoice books will be provided. Send white and yellow copy to check out, keep the pink.

Upon exiting the customer presents their invoices for purchase. This allows for sales tracking and secures purchase upon exit.

Wrapping and/or bags will be provided at check out. This helps prevent theft.

To reserve a table or wall space. Indicate number of tables and type of art to be sold.

Contact Lisa Iverson – lisaiverson@gmail.com or 360-790-2273

CAG reserves the right to reject items that it considers offensive or unsuitable. Columbia Arts Guild will not be held responsible for any loss or damage to any artwork or craft.